Sentiment Analysis in NLP

Sentiment Analysis identifies emotional tone in text, often used in analyzing social media, reviews, and feedback.

It works at multiple levels: document-level, sentence-level, and aspect-level.

Modern deep learning models and transformers significantly improved accuracy, though sarcasm and idioms remain challenging.